REAL ESTATE.

With the World's Fair assured, with the country prosperous, with local business conditions favorable, and present prices of real estate ruling less than in any great American city, we regard the present as a most favorable time for the purchase of St. Louis property.

We direct attention to the following pieces, selected at random from our large Real Estate Price List. Call or send for copy.

Prospective purchasers of St. Louis real estate of any description invited to call at our office.

Fine Residences:

Berlin Avenue.

No street in the new residence district is more desirable for a home than Berlin from Taylor avenue to King's highway. High, healthy and genteel. We have for sale two fine houses on this street. Nothing nicer in St. Louis. Neither are "cheap," but both are first-class houses at very reasonable prices. Prices, full particulars and card of admission to interested parties.

"Bell Place."

The finest home now for sale in St. Louis; built by the owner for a home in the hest possible manner; contains 15 rooms, and every convenience known to modern architecture; owner having gone abroad to live, offers house at less than cost, and it was built when materials were low. A chance to buy a fine home at a bargain and to save the worry of building. Key at office, and can arrange to show interested parties through house.

No. 5133 Washington Avenue.

North side of street, between King's highway and Union boulevard; a double house, containing 13 rooms, strictly modern; never occupied; lot 50 feet front; hot-water heat; a dozen parties want to rent at big prices; owner refuses to rent, but offers a bargain to a buyer. See the house and "be your own landlord."

Superb Residence-"Fullerton Place."

The handsomest residence in the most desirable and convenient residence district in St. Louis is offered for sale. A card of admission will be given interested parties. Price on application.

A Cheap Home-No. 5800 Bartmer.

A lovely new home; strictly modern, rough stone front; 2 stories, 10 rooms, attic and finished basement; lot 43x160; on the slope of the hill. An attractive, homelike place. The owner won't rent and has cut price from $8,600 to $5,500 for a quick sale. See the house and then see us. Can't be equaled in St. Louis at the price. Such bargains in desirable houses are seldom advertised.

McPherson Avenue.

Between Newstead and Boyle aves. We have an especially well-built 12-room residence for sale, and we can sell very cheap. There is no better or more convenient neighborhood in the city. One of the best houses in St. Louis for the money. Price considerably under $10,000.

4121 Evans Avenue. Here is a chance for a bargain in a small West End house; 2-story, 8-room brick; lot 25x167; won't name a price, but owner wants to sell; price will be "right."

Business Investments:

"MILL CREEK VALLEY" - Manchester and Chouteau Aves. Some of the most valuable property in the Mill Creek Valley manufacturing district. Splendid switching facilities; plats showing locations at office. Will sell all or part or lease for long term of years.

Ninth Street - $250. East side of street, between Walnut and Clark. 63.9 x 127.5. Choice ware-house or factory property; near Cupples' group.

Cass Avenue Corner.

Between Sixth and Tenth sts. Cheapest lot on that street—or any other rect. A rare and genuine bargain. If you can use such a lot come and see . If you want to speculate a little, look into this. A Business Corner in the West End.

We direct the attention of investors to the southeast corner of West Belle and Sarah street, extending through to the Suburban tracks. This site is the junction of the Suburban, the St. Louis and Meramec roads and the O'Fallon Park line. The great and increasing traffic passing this iot makes it particularly valuable as a business site. Lot, 78x140. On this lot are two modern residences, facing West Belle, leaving the street car frontage vacant, which is now ripe for stores and offices; now pay 6 per cent net; can be made to pay much greater returns by slight improvements. A rare opportunity. Price and particulars to interested parties.

Sixth Street.

East side, between Poplar and Corre. Lot, 50x127.8. Nothing better for warehouse or manufacturing. Price, $10,690; possibly less. Main, Second, Cedar and Gratiot.

Almost entire city block in the "Railroad district." Superb switching fa-ties. Plat at office. Price low.

Modern 3-story brick store building; 8-room apartment house second and third floors. Owner wants to use money in business, but will insist on long lease on basis that will make a splendid investment. New and clean property. Pretty near an 8 per cent net investment. Price, $16,000. Seventeenth and Austin Streets.

4308-10 Olive Street

Southeast corner, 155 feet on Austin, by depth of 100 feet on Seventeenth capital site for factory or warehouse; almost opposite Union Station and fronting main tracks. Will sell, lease ground or build to suit tenant.

2225 to 31 Scott Avenue-"Railroad District."

Probably the cheapest property in the railroad district; 4 brick houses, rented at fair prices; lot, 160x125 to alley; soon will be needed by the railroads; choice site for factory or warehouse; switch on Scott avenue, in few yards of this property; can be easily extended to this tract; corporation owning same desires to wind up its affairs, and we can sell this valuable property at a very low figure. Prices to interested parties. Easton Avenue, 4510.

Two-story brick store, with flat above; lot, 25 feet front. Few doors west of Taylor. Good business location; will sell low. The livest part of Easton avenue. Price, $6,900.

South Side Corner-Big Interest. The 3-story building at southwest corner of Cherokee and Nebraska. Can sell on basis to pay big interest. Lease guaranteed by brewery. Substantial building; growing neighborhood. Price, $7,000.

Fine Residence Lots:

In Westmoreland and Portland.

We have for sale 2 choice lots in these most desirable residence places. Two of these particular lots can be had at a very low price for early sale. This property is certain to increase in value, as the available sites are gradually being occupied with fine residences. Will be pleased to give particulars to increase a particular of the property particulars.

Lindell Avenue Lot.

West of Taylor-the choicest lot on Lindell, on the hill. Nothing better, nothing nearer the park as good. Get price. Bell Place Lot.
